CNC Upcoming Programs

April 2, Saturday 10 a.m. - 3 p.m. Spring Cleanup

Volunteer to help get CNC in shape for the upcoming season. Help is needed in all areas, from building cleanup to trail maintenance. Light workloads or heavy, your choice. There is a place for you no matter what your skills.

June 11, Saturday 5 p.m. till dark Twilight Dinner

Join us at Chaplin Nature Center for a beach party, barbecue, scavenger hunt, birdwatching and lots of fun. After dinner we have a special program planned. Judy Nichols, storyteller, is going to weave her magic with some tales around the campfire. Judy has been a professional talespinner and puppeteer for nine years, and performs frequently at the Great Plains Nature Center.

For more information about any Chaplin Nature Center programs call Shawn Silliman at 620-442-4133, or e-mail cnc@wichitaudubon.org.

April Meeting

In February 2004, Jim & Patty Marlett spent 10 days in the Galapagos Islands, visiting and photographing this unique land and its fascinating wildlife. Darwin's finches, flightless cormorants, giant tortoises, marine iguanas, sea lions and penguins are just a few of the creatures that make this place so special. Jim's excellent photographs will make the place come alive.

Please join Jim for dinner at Jason's Deli in Bradley Fair at 21st and Rock Road at 5:45 p.m. before the program.

April Meeting Date

Note that the April meeting is on April 12, the second Tuesday instead of the usual third Tuesday.

Birdathon

Birdathon is a fund-raising activity that is also a lot of fun. It is open to any member that likes to bird and wants to help. A Birdathon team solicits pledges from friends, neighbors and coworkers for the number of bird species they can find in a 24 hour period. We would really like to have your help. To join a team talk to Carol Cumberland, Patty Marlett, or Shawn Silliman. If you don't want to be on a team, consider soliciting pledges for one of the teams, or contribute yourself. Any and all assistance is appreciated.

Big Brother Big Sisters Program

Help give a deserving child a great nature experience on Saturday, April 9 as we host Big Brother Big Sister kids. We're planning a trip to Chaplin Nature Center for lunch and a hike. We need to have one adult to match with each child, preferably of the same gender. Contact Kevin Groeneweg, 687-4268, kgroeneweg@cox.net if you can help. The two programs we did last year were really fun, so plan to join us.

CWCP Summit

The Comprehensive Wildlife Conservation Plan (CWCP) summit was held at Kansas State University on February 22 - 23. I attended on behalf of Wichita Audubon. The purpose of this workshop was to gather input for the CWCP, which is required to be in place by October 1, 2005 as part of the State Wildlife Grants program. The goal of this federal program is to "keep common species common." The funding is intended for species that receive no other direct money, i.e. non-game species. Kansas is eligible for over $900,000 this year. The Kansas Department of Wildlife and Parks has contracted with Dynamic Solutions to produce the plan.

There were over 50 people in attendance representing many non-game interests. Breakout sessions were

Become a Citizen Scientist and Help House Finches!

Coast to coast, House Finches have become afflicted with a debilitating form of conjunctivitis. Two projects through Cornell's Laboratory of Ornithology, Audubon's partner in the Great Backyard Bird Count, offer budding Citizen Scientists the opportunity to take part in tracking and understanding this disease. Neither requires any experience and both are offered free of charge.

Citizen Scientists participating in the "House Finch Disease Survey" help monitor the spread and prevalence of the disease. Participants observe their feeders and submit data on the presence or absence of healthy and/or diseased birds in their particular location. Data can be submitted either on paper or online. The only equipment you need to participate is a feeder and the ability to observe your feeder visitors. Sign up at <http://birds.cornell.edu/hofisignup/signup.html> and you'll receive a kit with instructions and information in the mail.

Citizen Scientists participating in the "House Finch Nest Survey" are helping to determine if differences in breeding biology are the cause of seasonal and geographic variation in disease prevalence. Participants locate and monitor House Finch nests around their homes and neighborhoods and keep detailed nest records (nest cards provided). Sign up at www.birds.cornell.edu/hofisignup/nestsignup.html and you will be sent an information packet to teach you how to safely observe House Finch nests.

Questions are welcomed at housefinch@cornell.edu or visit the Cornell Laboratory of Ornithology at <http://birds.cornell.edu/>.

held for various species groups (birds, mammals, herps, invertebrates and fish) as well as conservation regions (tall grass, mixed grass and short grass). There was also a group for generalists. I attended the "birds" breakout group as well as portions of several other sessions. For the species group sessions, the distribution and abundance of Kansas' species of greatest conservation need was agreed upon. Within the conservation regions sessions, habitats were prioritized, issues within those habitats were identified, conservation strategies for each issue was identified and potential conservation partners were identified.

All in all this was a very productive meeting. Funding of this kind has been hard to come by, especially at the federal level. Up until now non-game funding has primarily come from the Chickadee Check off program at the state level. For more information about the plan, see www.kdwp.state.ks.us/other\_services/wildlife\_conservation\_plan. A draft of the plan is expected to be available for public comment in 6 to 8 weeks and should be available on the website. Otherwise let me know and I'll see that you get a copy. Also, to make sure that the funding promises are kept, I would suggest that everyone encourage their legislators to ensure passage of the State Wildlife Grant funding.
